9. [] - GLC) In response to his inquiry I advised Bob O'Regan, Staff Assistant to Representative Dante Fascell (D., Fla.), that for Fascell's private information representatives of the Miami Police Department had been included in some of the briefings which we provided to certain U. S. law enforcement agencies. He asked if the Miami people had been included in the one-day briefing session or the series that lasted several days. I told him I would check into this and see what I could find out.

10. [] - GLC) Richard Perle, on the staff of the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee of the Senate Government Operations Committee, called concerning an article under a Moscow heading which appeared in tonight's Evening Star. It makes references to an article by a Soviet commentator, Alexander Kislov, in the Soviet journal USA (March issue) and a summary of this article which was distributed by TASS. Perle said he was most anxious to get a copy of the TASS article since it relates to a resolution sponsored by Senator Jackson, Chairman of the Subcommittee, and he would also like any background information we can give him on Kislov. He also asked us if we would provide him with a copy of the journal when it is available. [] is checking on this for us.
